

Research Highlights in Technology & Teacher Education Rubric

Originality: Does the proposal offer unique insight into a specific phenomenon or topic directly connected to technology and teacher education?
High (3)	Medium (2)	Low (1)
The proposal directly addresses technology within the context of teacher education.	The proposal mostly addresses technology within the context of teacher education.	The proposal most limited connections between technology within the context of teacher education.
Relevance: Does the proposal address a current trend, issue, or topic that can improve the preparation and/or work of educators who are pre-service, in-service, or teacher educators?
High (3)	Medium (2)	Low (1)
The proposal directly addresses a timely trend, issue, or topic that impacts all educators.	The proposal addresses a trend, issue, or topic that may have impact to some educators.	The proposal addresses a niche topic or one that has little to no generalizability.
Relevance: Does the proposal address a current trend, issue, or topic that can improve the preparation and/or work of educators who are pre-service, in-service, or teacher educators?
High (3)	Medium (2)	Low (1)
The proposal directly addresses a timely trend, issue, or topic that impacts all educators.	The proposal addresses a trend, issue, or topic that may have impact to some educators.	The proposal addresses a niche topic or one that has little to no generalizability.
Quality: Is the proposal of appropriate length, is grammatically sound, and uses the APA reference style guide?
High (3)	Medium (2)	Low (1)
The proposal meets all these criteria.	The proposal meets most of these areas.	The proposal does not meet these standards.